One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize RatLite pages, or register with RatLite site or services, a cookie helps RatLite to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same RatLite website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the RatLite features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the RatLite services or websites you visit.
